Welcome to Okanagan Special Collections & Archives

Okanagan Special Collections and Archives (OSC) is located in COM 004 on the lower level of The Commons adjacent to the D. Ross Fitzpatrick Great Hall.

Materials in OSC are rare, unique and must be handled with care. As such our space is subject to enhanced security in comparison to the general library collection. Upon arrival we ask that you please place all coats/jackets or bags into the lockers provided. To protect our materials eating and drinking are not permitted in the Corbishley Family Reading Room. You're welcome to bring laptops, notebooks and pencils. If required, pencils and loose-leaf paper are available at the OSC Service Desk.

Images of resources in copyright may be captured on a personal device under the fair dealing exception of the Copyright Act (R.S.C., 1985, c. C-42), please capture OSC's usage tag in the image frame.

If you are planning to access digital archives, please note you will be required to fill out a Technology Borrowing Agreement. Access to digital archives will only be provided on an OSC device, which requires a UBC CWL (campus wide login). If you do not currently have an active CWL account please fill out the Technology Borrowing Agreement, prior to your visit so we can create a guest CWL on your behalf. For members of the UBC community with an active CWL account, you are welcome to submit the completed form ahead of your visit or it can be completed in-person at the OSC Service Desk.

To view our materials an active UBC library account is required. If you are a member of the UBC community please bring your UBC card with you to your appointment. If you do not have a UBC card or community borrower card, please fill out the attached application for a community borrower card. OSC staff will verify your information and provide you with a card during your visit. The UBC community borrower card gives you access not only to OSC materials but materials in the wider UBC Library system as well.

For any questions regarding your visit please contact us at osc-contact@lists.ubc.ca. We look forward to welcoming you Okanagan Special Collections and Archives!
